

DIED,

At the City of Washington, 18th inst. General URIAH TRACY, Æt. 53, Senator in the Congress of the U. States, from this State; and on the following day he was interred with the honors due to his station and character, as a statesman, and to his rank as a major-general; his pall being supported by the heads of departments and officers of government.

At Lyme, Miss Lucy Lay, Æt. 14. At Norwich, Miss Mary Cobb, Æt. 38. At Granville, Josiah Harcey, Esq. Æt. 63. At Hartford, Mr. Horace Bull, Merchant, Æt. 23, son of Doct. Isaac Bull—Mrs. Rachel Haynes, Æt. 50. At North-Stonington, Samuel Prentice, Esq. Æt. 71. At Stonington, Doct. William Vincent. At Litchfield, Mrs. Rhoda Sanford, Æt. 65—Mr. John Long, Æt. 77. At Hamden, Mrs. Martha Tuttle, Æt. 86

In this city, Mr. Archibald Rice, jun. Æt. 19, son of Mr. Archibald Rice—In the death of this amiable young man, his bereaved Parents have sustained an irreparable loss, and his circle of young friends, an affectionate and agreeable companion, whose fond remembrance will long be cherished.

“ — Yet methinks 'tis strange,

In youth's gay prime, to close the languid eye
Upon the splendid picture of the world,
And break each fond attachment.”